

A woman watches a Jewish shopkeeper clear up glass from his shop window which has been smashed during an organised attack on Jewish people in 1938.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A woman looks out of her window at a large group of Jews. The Jews are being forced to walk to a forest where they will be killed.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A family moves into a house which used to be owned by a Jewish family. The Jews have been killed.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A man walks past a group of Jews who are being forced to clean the street with toothbrushes.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

An architect designs a gas chamber.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

An SS man puts poisonous gas into a gas chamber.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

The British government finds out about Auschwitz-Birkenau. The government decides not to bomb it.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A Lithuanian man joins a crowd of ordinary people who kill their Jewish neighbours.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A businessman takes over a shop from its Jewish owners.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A German soldier films the mass shooting of a large group of Jews.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A woman sees long trains which are full of people go past her house. The trains are always empty when they return.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

The British government lets 10,000 Jewish children from Germany come to Britain. The government does not let their parents come with them.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

British athletes take part in the Olympics in Berlin in 1936.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A German family buys plates and dishes from the Jewish family who live next door. The Jews are trying to raise money to escape to America.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A man walks past a group of Nazis who are cutting off an old Jewish man's beard.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A German policeman decides not to take part in the shooting of Jews.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A Jewish leader asks people to “give me your children” after the Nazis order him to hand over 20,000 people from the ghetto.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

Four Jewish brothers lead a group of Jewish people who fight the Nazis and protect 1,200 Jews who have escaped from ghettos.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A sewer worker makes money by getting Jews to pay him to hide them in a sewer. He continues to look after them after their money runs out.

© Holocaust Educational Trust

A German soldier finds a Jew hiding in the ruins of Warsaw in 1944. The soldier gives him food and supplies.

© Holocaust Educational Trust